Update Mission Statement

To develop and cultivate the qualities of creativeness, boldness, and personal growth that I admire in Steve Jobs, I must challenge everyday. I will stay focus throughout my courses at Full Sail University in order for me to gain creativity. I must not think like an average and not live like an average, so that I can be bold. I must use my time wisely and avoid distraction in order for me to gain personal growth. Time is limited and I must not waste living someone else's life.

TEM Mission Statement

Desire, Care, and Fitness

My mission is to graduate the Mobile Development degree program. I will complete the program by having a desire, a care, and fitness goals. My desire for success will help me motivate to finish my daily assignments, and homework. My care for my family will help me to not take failure, and keep on attempting till I succeed. My fitness goals will keep me away from negativity and will help me stay positive. I will tackle my daily obstacles. I will not party till I accomplish my mission. I will not rest till I accomplish my mission. When I am resting, someone out there is not besting.
